Life Sciences Pennsylvania, Montréal InVivo and Québec International sign a Memorandum of Understanding to strengthen cooperation

Philadelphia, September 25th, 2018 - Christopher P. Molineaux, President & CEO of Life Sciences Pennsylvania, Frank Béraud, CEO of Montreal InVivo, and Carl Viel, President and CEO of Québec International signed a memorandum of understanding to promote mutually beneficial cooperation and connectivity between the parties in various life sciences and health technology sectors. The signing ceremony was held today at the MedTech Conference, the premier annual gathering for the medical technology industry, in the presence of the Mayor of Québec City, Régis Labeaume.

“Life Sciences Pennsylvania is proud to partner with Montréal InVivo and Québec International – two distinguished organizations that share our goal of fostering research and innovation. We look forward to facilitating cooperation between companies and institutions in Pennsylvania, Montréal, and Québec that strive to develop novel treatments and cures.”

Christopher P. Molineaux, President & CEO of Life Sciences Pennsylvania

“Montréal InVivo is pleased to initiate the opening of a new business corridor between Quebec and Pennsylvania, which will help to expand our life sciences ecosystem and increase the visibility of the Montreal Metro’ Life Sciences and Health Technology sector in the US.”

Frank Béraud, CEO of Montréal InVivo

“The life sciences industry is a major economic force for our city and our province. This new alliance is a testament to our commitment to join forces to support the life sciences industry by providing the impetus to bring projects to fruition and expand its reach worldwide.”

Carl Viel, President and CEO of Québec International
